

Gifts of Appreciated Stock

Why give stock to Proctors?

There are advantages to giving appreciated securities to Proctors. Donating securities that have gone up in value and have been held more than 12 months can have a double tax benefit for you.

How? You may be able to deduct the full fair market value of your appreciated assets — not just what you paid originally — and save again by avoiding all capital gains taxes on your “paper profit.” Take the example of Mrs. Smith. The stock she purchased in 2003 for $2,500 is now worth $10,000. If Mrs. Smith gives the stock instead of cash, Proctors receives a gift of $10,000 – the fair market value of the stock – and she can claim a $10,000 charitable deduction on her next income tax return. In 2013, if she is in a 28% bracket, that’s a tax savings of $2,800. Further, she avoids $1,125 in capital gains tax that would be due if she sold the stock ($$10,000 - $2,500 = $7,500 \times 15\%$). Net result: Rather than giving an equivalent amount of cash, selling the stock, and paying $1,125 in capital gains tax, she could give the stock to Proctors and enjoy a $3,925 tax savings on an investment that cost $2,500.

The chart below shows the tax savings of this gift in the different tax brackets.

The potential tax savings from a gift (versus a sale) of securities purchased for $2,500, held for at least 1 year + a day, and now worth $10,000 is:
Tax bracket	10%	15%	25%	28%	33%	35%	39.6%
Charitable deduction	$1,000	$1,500	$2,500	$2,800	$3,300	$3,500	$3,960
Plus: long-term capital gains tax savings				$1,125 ($$7,500 \times 15\%$)			$1,500 ($$7,500 \times 20\%$)
Plus: Medicare surtax savings*					$285 ($$7,500 \times 3.8\%$)		$285 ($$7,500 \times 3.8\%$)
Total tax savings	$1,000	$1,500	$3,625	$3,925	$4,710	$4,910	$5,745

* The Medicare surtax applies to taxpayers with modified adjusted gross income of $200,000 (individuals) or $250,000 (couples).

Valuation. For an actively traded security, the value of your gift is the mean (average) between the high and low market quotations on the date you make your gift. The IRS defines “gift date” as the date that the securities pass unconditionally from your control. If transferred electronically, this is the date you instruct your broker in writing to make the transfer. Otherwise, it is the date of mailing or otherwise delivering the certificate(s) in negotiable form to Proctors.

Mutual fund shares. The deduction is the public redemption value of the shares.

Split certificates. Your certificate held by you may be for more shares than you wish to contribute to Proctors. If so, when you deliver the certificate, include instructions indicating the number of shares you are donating. Your instructions will be followed, and the corporation will issue and send you a new certificate — registered in the same way as the original certificate.

Comparing the Benefits of Giving Cash or Securities

PROCEDURES FOR GIVING SECURITIES when the security is in your name and held by you:

- 1) First, instruct your broker to transfer your gift to the Proctors account at:

RBC Wealth Management
455 Patroon Creek Boulevard; 2nd Floor
Albany, NY 12206
Attn: Jennifer Connors
518-432-1450

DTC Participant #0235
Account # 302-04128
Proctors
Code #40

- 2) Then, please have your bank or broker inform Proctors directly of the transfer. Contact: Carrie Kirkaldy, Annual Funds Director, 518-382-3884 x172 or ckirkaldy@proctors.org with the following information:

Name of donor
The name of the security
The number of shares
Date of the gift
Fair market value

- 3) That way, Proctors can instruct our broker to sell immediately.

CASH: A cash gift is the simplest way to make a contribution to Proctors. Cash gifts are deductible for income tax purposes up to 50% of your adjusted gross income. A gift in excess of that limit can be carried forward as a deduction for up to five additional years.

SECURITIES: You may find it more beneficial to give securities that have appreciated in value. Securities can include closely held or publicly traded stock and mutual fund shares. If you sell appreciated securities, you will incur a taxable gain. By giving Proctors securities that have been held more than 12 months, you receive a double tax benefit:

- You avoid capital gains tax on the appreciation.
- You receive a charitable income tax deduction for the full fair market value of the assets.

Gifts of appreciated securities are deductible up to 30% of your adjusted gross income. A gift in excess of that limit may be carried forward for up to five years.
