

INSPIRE

Help send teaching artists into classrooms, inspiring students to learn about arts and pursue their dreams.

ACCESS

Donations subsidize the cost of bringing students to education programs at Proctors.

Your support lowers ticket prices at Proctors, making entertainment and arts education available to the entire community.

DIVERSIFY

Your continued support helps ensure that our wide range of programming remains the mirror of our diverse community.

REVITALIZE

Your donation helps Proctors remain a catalyst for the revitalization of Schenectady and other communities in the Capital Region.

IT'S SO EASY TO BECOME A MEMBER AT PROCTORS!

It's easy

Pledge now, pay later through the end of the campaign year (January 1, 2020-December 31, 2020).

Double your donation

Does your employer match your charitable contributions? A $300 donation, when matched, doubles your impact on the arts and affords you benefits at the $600 level!

Stock gifts are a win for everyone

Memberships paid in the form of appreciated stock saves you charitable gains, and offers you a charitable deduction for the current value of the stock.

FOR THE REST, WE COUNT ON YOU.

When you donate to Proctors, you're directly investing in the continued success and future of your community

Proctors is a 501(c)(3) charitable, cultural and educational non-profit that depends on your support.

Proctors is a member of the Proctors Collaborative, the Capital Region's preeminent arts organization.

WE HAVE THE CAPITAL REGION COVERED!

PROCTORS

is a 2,650-seat former vaudeville house with two smaller black box theatres, presenting over 300 live performances a year in Schenectady, from touring Broadway to comedy to music and more. In addition, it screens roughly 200 movies a year and hosts over 1,000 non-ticketed events.

theREP★

is the region's preeminent professional theatre, staging more than 160 performances a year in downtown Albany. theREP is moving to a newly renovated home (capacity 310) in 2020 is located in the heart of downtown Saratoga Springs. An extensive renovation project is transforming a 19th century High Victorian Gothic church into a state-of-the-art performance facility. Programming for over 200 cultural events a year in the 700-seat venue launches in early 2020.

UPH

SCHOOL OF THE PERFORMING ARTS

Reaching over 45,000 students throughout the Capital Region and beyond each year with a full calendar of classes, workshops, camps and performances. The School of the Performing Arts provides education and training opportunities in a diverse selection of disciplines, both onstage and behind the scenes, offering budding artists and future creative professionals the chance to pursue their passion and achieve their artistic goals.
