

Capital Repertory Theatre is a member organization of the Proctors Collaborative, the Capital Region's preeminent arts organization.

WE HAVE THE CAPITAL REGION COVERED!

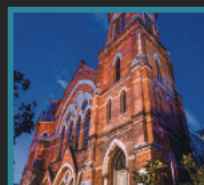

theREP★

is the region's preeminent professional theatre, staging more than 160 performances a year in downtown Albany. In 2020, theREP is moving to a newly renovated home (capacity 310).

PROCTORS

is a 2,650-seat former vaudeville house with two smaller black box theatres, presenting over 300 live performances a year in Schenectady, from touring Broadway to comedy, music and more. In addition, it screens roughly 200 movies a year and hosts over 1,000 non-ticketed events.

is located in the heart of downtown of Saratoga Springs. An extensive renovation project is transforming a 19th century High Victorian Gothic church into a state-of-the-art performance facility. Programming for over 200 cultural events a year in the 700-seat venue launches in early 2020.

impacts over 45,000 youth annually. Camps and classes are offered to budding actors, playwrights, musicians, filmmakers, dancers, and sound, special effects and lighting technicians. And that barely scratches the surface; visit school.proctors.org for opportunities throughout the region.
