WHY BECOME A MEMBER...

- To live a life less ordinary by supporting our mission to bring the Arts to the Capital Region.
- Because when you support our venues, you directly support the local community through cultural advancement and economic impact!
- Because you can help change the lives of students and young people by ensuring no one is turned away because of financial need.
- To support one of the largest drivers of the Creative Economy in the Capital Region.
- To join other members and community-minded supporters who believe in the Arts.
- All of this is possible when you support one, two, or all of our venues.

PROCTORS

We change expectations about how the Arts can serve a community. By creating partnerships with our neighbors and community members, we connect the Arts to the lives of our patrons and friends and move our mission forward.

For almost 100 years, Proctors has been a staple of downtown Schenectady, helping drive the social and economic engine in the Electric City.

Kristyn Youngblood and Danyel Fulton in Petticoats of Steel

theREP★

In its state-of-the-art home at 251 N. Pearl Street in Albany, theREP will continue its tradition of new play development for both seasoned playwrights and the next generation of writers bringing stories to life on stage.

We bring stories to life and unleash ideas to the world. Our productions serve as a catalyst for our communities and foster the belief that theatre must serve as an advocate of the common threads that bind the American culture together.

Collaborative
SCHOOL OF THE ARTS

The Collaborative School of the Arts brings together students from across the Capital Region to show them the power of the Arts. From the Young Playwrights at theREP, to Rock Camp at UPH, to the Acting Academy at Proctors and so much more, the Collaborative School of the Arts is dedicated to helping grow the cultural and technical skills of the Region's young people. With scholarship opportunities that guarantee everyone can take part, regardless of financial circumstances, the School of the Arts is a vital part of our mission.

Thomas Silcott in the Roayle

UPH

We are dreamers, artists, educators, innovators and leaders. Our members allow us to bring diverse talent to our stage so we may show our audiences the power and impact of the Arts.

An architectural gem in the heart of downtown Saratoga Springs, UPH came roaring to life in 2020 with a wide range of performers in our 700-seat theatre in the round.

WE AMPLIFY THE ARTS TO SERVE AS A CATALYST FOR GOOD IN THE COMMUNITY...

AND YOUR SUPPORT DRIVES THAT MISSION FORWARD!
